(4) The Kentucky State Historical Society,Old State House, Box H,Frankfort Ky. 40602
(5) The Wythe-Grayson Regional Library,Independence Va. 24348
(6) The Wilkes Co. Library, 963 C. Street,North Wilkesboro N.C. 28659
(7) The Ashe Co. Library, West Jefferson N.C. 28694
(8) The New Haven Colony Historical Society,114 Whitney Ave,New Haven Conn. 06510
(9) The Whitley County Library,285 S. 3rd Street,Williamsburg, Ky. 40769
(10) The Nebraska State Historical Society, 1500 N. R. Street Lincoln Neb 68509
(that part which relates to the Nebraska branch)

How to read this summary

The complete mss centers on Edward Perkins,immigrant to America sometime before 1646, to New Haven Conn. from Hillmorton Parish, Warwickshire, England.

A is the English History. It is contained in Appendix K (short version) and in the summary, Appendix K Page 30. It is also shown in the Table of Contents and consists of 10 generations. These are the ancestors of Edward.

B is the New Haven history. It is shown in the Table of Contents and consistts of 4 generations. It is also shown in Appendix I . These are the descendants of Edward of New Haven down to Timoth y Perkins Sr, the immigrant from New Haven to North Carolina sometime before 1778.

C is the history from 1778 . It follows Timothy Sr(my 4th great grandfather) to me. In doing this I spun out as many collateral lines as I could find, knowing that many others would find their ancestors in my collateral lines. This is contained in pages 1-26 and various appendices of the original mss.I will only supply those pages of the original mss which pertain to your individual requests.

Some interesting aspects of the English history

In feudal England everyone had some connection with another higher ranking family. Note the early Perkins's had such a feudal connection with the DeSpencer family, who were Norman.

The family once owned an estate near Reading in Berkshire, called Ufton Court. Of course it hasn't been in the family since 1790. But it is still standing, is in beautiful condition even though some of it was first built in the 1400's, and is used by the Berkshire schools as an outdoor education and retreat center. See Appendix M as to how to locate it.

Another interesting sidelight is the effect of the English law of primogeniture, that the oldest son inherits the family estate. A William Perkins (Gen. 6 App. K Page 3) was the younger son. His older brother John Perkins (Gen 51 App K Page 2) had inherited Ufton Court about 1478. William left Berkshire to start his own farm in Warwickshire. He was the founder of the Warwickshire, Hillmorton Parish branch of the family. The irony is that the Ufton Court branch died out about 1790. The Hillmorton brnach emigrated to the American shores between 1630 and and 1640 and are all over the United States, probably in the thousands.

The Ufton Court branch remained Catholic and had a hard time under Henry VIII and Elizabeth I. The Hillmorton branch became Puritan.

Our immigrant ancestor Edward Perkins of New Haven was one of 8 Perkins relatives who came over between 1630 and about 1640. Each of the 8 established important branches of the family in America. In full Appendix K I have established just how these 8 were related. This is work never before undertaken. The reference are all to the generation numbers in Appendix K (short form)

The first cousins were (1) Edward Perkins of New Haven (Gen. No. 10-3 Page 5) (2) John Perkins of Ipswich Mass.(Gen. No 923 Page 3) (3) Isaac Perkins (Gen. No. 952 who in America married the widow Alice Perkins.(See below) (4) Isaac Perkins (Gen. No 982 Page 4) and (5) Abraham Perkins (Gen. No 987 Page 4) brother of Isaac Perkins (952) who both mobed to Hampton N.H.

Other related Perkins's were (1) Rev. William Perkins of Topsefield Mass (2) Alice Perkins a widow who came to America with her distant kinsman John of Ipswich. Her children began the Boston branch of the family. (3) Nicholas Perkins, immigrant about 1640 to Virginia.

There are also land records for a William Perkins, as yet unidentified. Appendix J also contains a map showing that the Virginia holdings in Grayson County and the North Carolina holdings of the clan were only about 10 miles from each other.

Appendix K short version — Genealogy of Division A in the Table of Contents. From Peter Morley Perkins to Thomas Perkins, father of Edward Perkins who came to America before 1646

Appendix K full version — The same genealogy as above. The full version may not be of interest to my immediate family. But it has a general historic interest. 8 Perkin relatives came to America between 1630 and 1646. 7 of the 8 came from Hillmorton Parish in Warwickshire England. 5 of the 8 were related as first cousins , brothers, or otherwise. I believe for the first time my work has indentified just how they were related.

Most of these 8 established important and extensive branches of the Perkins family in America. I am confident that thousands of Perkins now living in America come from these 8. For example, I only followed a narrowing line of one, Edward Perkins of New Haven, and find in this work that I have over a thousand names.

Appendix K, full version, therefore, may help others find their roots.

Appendix K page 30 contains a one page summary. And Page 31 contains an interesting story of Alexander Pope's poem The Rape of the Lock whose subject was a Perkins wife.

Appendix L — The story of Colonel Benjamin Cleveland's ambush and capture by Tory Captain Riddle at the home of Timothy and Joseph Perkins on April 14,1781, a recorded historical incident.

Appendix M — The brief story of Ufton Court, an English Manor House once owned by the Perkins family before 1792 in Barkshire County, near Reading. Still in beautiful condition. Durections as to how to get there.

Appendix N — Material received from Darline Rath (Source 22) a Perkins descendant thru Jesse Alvin Perkins (Gen. 23 P 12) who moved to Illinois and his descendants hence to Nebraska. The names in this material and index are not included beyond Jesse Alvin in my index of names

Appendix O — Genealogies received in 1977 from Elsie Conner of Stamford Neb. and from Cathy Perkins Hollingshead of Wickenberg Ar. The first named comes from Jesse Alvin Perkins(Gen 23 P 12) and the second from Eli Sheridan Perkins (Gen 347 P 17) Combined below

Combined Appendix N and O — In November 1981 I took all the material in Appendices N and O and combined the data, adding an index. This was done becuase all of the data started with Jesse Alvin Perkins who migrated from Ky about 1834 and the family spread from there to Iowa and Nebraska. An index of names has been included. 242 names in the combined index.

Appendix O-1 — Notes on land title searches in Bureau and Putnam County Ill. It relates to Jabez Perkins Illinois lands (Gen 2 P 12 and 14)

Appendix P — Not included. It was a bible record of a Mart Perkins.

Appendix Q — The Faulkners of Knox and Whitley County Ky (Source letter 169 1978)

Appendix R — The known genealogy of Blossom McDade Perkins, wife of the writer, (Gen 7 P 25). The names have been included in the general index of names The family is of Hagerstown Md and Iowa.

Appendix S — The known genealogy of Amy Abercrombie Perkins, wife of Edwin McDade Perkins (Gen 74 P 25) The names have not been included in the general index. This appendix has not been sent generally to my correspondents.

Appendix T — New May 1982 Children and descendants of Gordon Perkins (Gen 17 P 7, 7th son of Timothy Perkins Sr (Gen 1 P 3) Names in this appendix have not been included in the general index of names which was compiled before I had received data on this Appendix

Appendix U — The children and descendants of Martha Jane Perkins (King) (12 child of John Felix Perkins. Gen 4-12 Page 20) The names appearing in this Appendix are not in the general index of names because I only had data in 1982. New appendix May 1982

Appendix V — Children and descendants of Jared Perkins(2nd son of Timothy Sr (Gen 12 Page 3) new June 1982

Explanation of the organization of this mansuscript

I have divided the 21 generations into 3 divisions. The generation numbers are divided in the same way.

Division A 10 generations from the first known English ancestor Peter Morley Perkins (1) to Thomas Perkins, father of Edward Perkins of New Haven(10) The bare outline is on page 2 and the full story in Appendix K. At the beginning of Appendix K there is a simplified version.

Division B 4 generations from Edward Perkins, the immigrant to New Haven before 1646(1) to Joseph Perkins, the father of Timothy Perkins below(4) The bare outline is on page 2 and the complete story in Appendix I

Division C 7 generations between Timothy Perkins, the immigrant to North Carolona before 1778,(1) to the writer Paul M. Perkins (7)

The descdendants of each beginning or immigrant ancestor within each group are numbered as follows:

1 the original immigrant within that group

11 his child

111 his grandchild

1111 his great grand child etc

12 his child

121 his grand child

1211 his great grand child etc.

I have provided an index of names only for Division C since that will be the division of most general interest. The Appendices are similarly numbered.

A The English Ancestors of Edward Perkins of New Haven(Gen 11 Appendix K page 9 andGen 1 Appendix I page 1)

This page is a summary only to keep the story in chronological order. The full story is in Appendix K. There are 10 generations between Peter Morley(Morlauix) Perkins (Gen 1 App K pagel) and Thomas Perkins Jr(Gen 9/10 App K page 8) the father of Edward Perkins of New Haven

I have a short version of Appendix K for those not interested in the full version. I also believe that Appendix K may be of interest to other Perkins lines. 8 Perkins relatives came from England during the Puritan migration, at least 7 from Warwickshire and 5 from Hillmorton Parish in that county. I believe in Appendix K I have identified exactly how 5 were related as brothers or first cousins. I believe this is the first time this work has been done. Literally thousands of Perkins's in American spring from those eight.

The generations in my immediate line to the immigrant Edward before 1646 are

This completes the historical statement that Timothy Perkins Sr (Gen 1) had 8 sons and 1 daughther. The writer's ancestor was Jabez Perkins (Gen 13 P 4) who will be carried forward as Gen 2 on Page 12 . But I have tried to include as many collateral lines as possible to assist others.

Migrations of Timothy Perkins Sr

He was b in New Haven Conn. (Appendix I Page 3 and Source 1) in 1736, son of Joseph Perkins and Phoebe Moultrap. In January 1776 Abel Sperry, the father of his wife Miriam in a will written in Conn., said that his daughter, married to Timothy Perkins, his son William, and his daughter Lois had gone to North Carolina against his wishes. (Source 3)

He then surfaces in Wilkes Co NC on April 17,1778 when he makes a land entry of 400 acres in Wilkes Co NC where Gap Creek enters the New River. The State of NC did not acquire title to its wilderness land until the Confiscation(From England) Act of 1778. Wilkes Co was organized out of Anson Co Jan 1778 and opened its land entry book in March 1778. (Source 11)

A land entry did not mean he had title but only that he was living on that land and had made improvements on it. In Timothy's case, the entry says he has made 3 improvements. This clearly indicates he had been there for some time. It also shows that he was not just a primitive frontier hunter type who often just squatted on the land but was educated enough to know the importance of land titles and entries. He was quick to take advantage of the new laws. His was the land entry 55, one of the first.

The best guess is that he arrived in NC about 1774. At that time he had 7 of his 9 children, the youngest being 9. Going overland from Conn. to the western mountains of NC involved a trip of about 700 miles, probably down the Wilderness Road where it begins on the Potomac in Maryland. It goes down the Shenandoah Valley. It was then being populated fiarly well down to Inglis's Ferry across the New River near what is now Radford Va. Below that, it had just been opened and was a dark and wild country.

But probably at Inglis's Ferry Timothy's party started up the New River and ended up on Old Fields- a large grassy area which had been used by the Indians to grow corn. There they stopped. They might also have stopped where Big Wilson creek empties into the New River, this giving rise to the tradition that they first went to Grayson Co Va, only a few miles from Old Fields. But if they did they certainly went on.

Another tradition is that the women and children were sent by boat to Cape Fear NC and the men went overland (Source 23A p 7) At any rate he was definitly on the New River Old Field's grant in April 1781 when the ambush of Col Benjamin Cleveland took place at the Timothy Perkins cabin during Timothy's absence. (See Appendix L)

Land of Timothy Perkins (Gen 1)

That he never acquired deeds for land in either North Carolina or Virginia was verified by personal check of deed records in both counties and in the state archives. (See Appendices H and J) His land entry in 1778 was never followed by a grant or patent.

His children and grand children acquired a lot of land in both Grayson Co Va and Ashe Co N C. His brother Joseph acquired land in both counties. Timothy's brother Joseph(ABJ-4) is said to have acquired about 4000 acres in Watauga Co N C, adjoining Ashe. (Source 27). The fact that Timothy Sr did not acquire land land has significance in the question of the date and manner of his death.

Timothy and Joseph Perkins were tories

Arthur in History of Watauga County says they were tax collectors in New England. But this could not be verified. (See letter to me No 64A from the Connecticut archives 9/2/1975). The story of the Benjamin Cleveland ambush at the Timothy Perkins cabin on April 14,1781 (See Appendix L) is also proof.

Question of time and manner of Timothy's death

A. Hypothesis that he lived to 1834

This is believed by Dow Perkins and others. Proof of this is said to be his gravetone in the Sturgill Cemetery and reference to Timothy in the diary of Dr. Elisha Mitchell in 1828. " Dr. Mitchell's diary records him as living as very old man alone in 1828." (quote from Dow Perkins Source 5 P 3) Whether this hypothesis is proved by the above depends on the evidence.

The gravestone Mr. Bryan Spencer of the First National Bank of West Jefferson N.C. has told me that the gravestone actually reads TP 1834. There is no independent evidence that this stands for Timothy Perkins. Mrs Eleanor Reeves, a genealogist of West Jefferson has written me that this could have been Pennington as well as Perkins, as both families were in the area. (My source 24)

The diary of Dr. Mitchell Dr. Elisha Mitchell was a minister with a scientific vent who was employed by N C to make a mineral survey of the mountain counties. His complete diary was published by the Unoversity of North Carolina in 1905. I have a copy of the entire 85 page book. (Source 16) . The only mention of a Timothy Perkinsis on pages 24 and 25:

" Gneiss (a mineral) about a distance of 9 miles from town (Jefferson N C) where a change in the nature of the country seems to take place, say 5 miles from the Virigina line. Stopped at Timothy Perkins where there was an army of maidens. I proposed pushing up Helton Creek but was advised to stay and get information at a Methodist meeting nearby at 12. It being the middle of harvest but few attended, and if they had staid away, as it seems to me, been as well. (Mitchell was a disaproving Presbyterian). After the service a class meeting (an early institution in the Methodist Church by which a class leader kept moral tabs on the members between church services). I staid and heard a reasonable amount of female screaming and vociferation."

The Timothy referred to in the diary is undoubtedly Timothy Jr, son of Timothy Sr (Gen No 15 Page 5) The clue is in the phrase an army of maidens. Timothy J then hadildaughters, ages 3 to 28. Note that the diary does not say " he was living alone."

It is clear to me that the evidence cited in proof of Timothy's death in 1834 is faulty.

B. Hypothesis that he died in a Revolutionary War skirmish Probate records In 1783 George Morris was appointed guardian of Gebas Perkins (undoubtedly Jabez, Timothy Sr's son, then 17) I found this record while at the State Archives in Raleigh in April 1976. Later in 1788 Jabish Perkins was appointed administrator of William Sperry, his mother's brother. (See p. 7) Morris was a neighbor on Old Fields.

There is no reason generally to appoint a guardian of a minor if the natural parents are living. We know that Jabez's mother Miriam died at the birth of her last child in 1777. The existence of the appointment is proof that his father Timothy had died before 1783.

No one would have gone to all that trouble without some reason. One example requiring the appointment of a guardian would be to deal with a minor's interest in inherited real estate.

Another reason is suggested by the fact that Jabez was a minor when he married Nancy Ann Creekmore (See page 12) Now as then the marriage of minors must be approved by a parent. If a parent is not living, it must be by a person in loco parentis- i e a guardian.

The absence of real estate transactions by Timothy Sr In 1783 Timothy Sr would only have been 47. The whole clan was very acquisitve and got land as fast as they could. His children had acquired almost 5000 acres in Grayson Co Va and Ashe Co N C by 1818. His brother Joseph had acquired about 4000 acres in neighboring Watauga Co. The Perkins had known settled and civilized New Haven and were well acquainted with land titles. They were not frontier hunter types who simply " squatted" on land. If Timothy had in fact lived to 1834, I believe he would have been involved in land deals as were his children. The total absence of any such deals is pretty good proof to me that he had died earlier.

Traditional proof The Eller Collection on file in the West Jefferson N.C. library, a collection of old documents says: "Timothy killed on the Tory side in a battle on the South Fork near the mouth of Gap Creek during the Revolu tionary War." (Source 24)

Mrs Eleanor Reeves (Source 24) "... I have heard this (the battle) all my life. John Baker my paternal relative and my maternal Calloways were active in the Old Fields skirmish, and it has been talked about ever since it happened, generation after generation." Mrs Reeves is a professional genealogist.

Conclusion From all the evidence I conclude that Timothy did not live to 1834 but died at least before 1783, and probably as history reports, in a skirmish. I found some controversy on this point. The fact that I may differ from Dow Perkins on this point does not detract from his magnificent work. Our branch of the family should be deeply appreciative of his work. I wrote him in 1976 but received no answer.

Migrations of Timothy Perkins (21)

He went from Grayson Co Va to then Knox Co Ky in 1810. His father Jabez came in 1811 with the rest of the family. (In 1811 Jabez assessed for 200 acres in 1811. See Source 30-5) in Knox Co Ky. Timothy Perkins (21) and his brother Jesse Alvin Perkins (23) helped lay out the new town of Williamsburg in the formation of Whitley Co in 1818. (Source 30-2) Timothy left Knox Co Ky and went to Indiana about 1827. He arrived in then Putnam (now Bureau Co Ill in 1829, the 10th settler there. (Source 30-2) A few weeks after arrivi Timothy and a Leonard Roth built a saw mill and a cabin. (Source 13) A feat of the cabin was that the roof was made of deer skins, as was the door.

Also in Putnam Co Ill with him were his cousin Stephen Perkins (Gen P 5); his brother Jesse Alvin Perkins (Gen 23 P 12); for a while his brother William Perkins (Gen 28 P 12),who returned to Ky; his sister Patsy Perkins Screech (Gen 25 P 12); and probably for a while his father Jabez Perkins (G 2) for his father owned Illinois lands at the time of his death.

In 1843 Timothy Perkins and some of his children left Illinois heading for Texas but stopped in Missouri. Was in the Mo census for 1850 in Gentry Co and is absent from the 1860 census, indicating his death by then. (Source 30 -1)

Dempsey and his brother Harrison (Gen 27) were in the coal business and owned slaves. At the death of Nancy's father Jabez, Dempsey owed Jabez a note for $240. (Jabez Perkins will)

This completes what is known of the9 children of Jabez Perkins (Gen 2 Page 12)

Migrations of Jabez Perkins (Gen. 2)

B.in New Haven Ct, he migrated with his father Timothy Perkins Sr (Gen 1) to Old Fields on the South Fork of the New River about 1774 when he was 8.

Tradition has his children being born in Grayson Co Va. But there has always been a question as to when he moved from Wilkes (now Ashe) Co NC to Va.

A guardian (George Morris a neighbor on the New River) was appointed for Jabez in 1783, which defintely shows his residency in NC then when he was 17. I believe this appointment was made so that the guardian could give permission for him to marry that year Nancy Creekmore, since his father and mother were presumably dead.

In Wilkes Co NC he was appointed administrator of the estate of his uncle William Sperry in 1788. Ordinarily this would suppose residency in N C but perhaps not. But in June 1798 he had a survey of 735 acres in Grayson Co Va (Source 30-5). This would indicate his presence in Grayson Co that year, even though he did not get title to any Grayson Co realestate until 1807. (See Appendix H) There is no record of his getting any title or making any land entry to Ashe Co NC land.

An explanation may lie in the fact that the Ashe Co land of the Perkins clan, mostly on Helton Creek, and the Graysom Co lands mostly on the Big and Little Wilson Creeks are really only about 10 miles apart. (See Appendix J Page 3) They probably lived and worked in both states and were actually residents of both states, making any residency declarations as suited their convenience.

He moved to Knox Co Ky about 1811, being listed for personal property tax in that county in that year. (Source 30-5) In 1813 he sold his Grayson Co lands, signing the deed in Knox Co Ky. (See Appendix H for details)

When his sons Timothy (21), Jesse Alvin (23) and daughter Patsy Screech (25) went to Bureau Co Ill about 1828, I believe he went also but certainly returned to Whitley Co Ky where he died in 1835. His will mentions Illinois lands

Will of Jabez Perkins

His will was probated in Whitley Co Ky in Feb 1836, death occuring December 1835. He gave all of his children, except William, $1.00, and then left all of his property including his Illinois real estate to William (Gen 28). There has always been an old wive's tale that you had to leave your children something (like one dollar) to insure that the will could not be broken. The theory behind this erroneuous notion is that by leaving them a dollar you know who they are and are theorefore of sound mind. But there must have been some trouble about the will. The record shows that the widow Nancy did not accept what had been given her (nothing) but the record does not show the outcome.

The will also left his farm equipment and his negro Hanna to William. So he must have owned a slave. But his grandson Dempsey will become an enemy of slavery. Slave owning was not common among the mountain people. Even so many mountain people who owned slaves were still for the Union side of that war, such as the Faulkners. Only in 1979 did I get a line on the children and descendants of William from Mrs Gloria Perkins of Norwood Ohio, author of Source 19.

An economic note. In the 1820's Kentucky land warrents were sellling for 50¢ an acre. In 1836 land was selling for $2.00 an acre. By 1862, Jabez's grandson Felix bought neighboring land for $6.00 an acre.

His Ky Land

This is set forth in detail In Appendix G. He settled on Jellico Creek, but his son Solomon settled on Meadowcreek (See Appendix G) He had 160 acres in 1835 in Bureau Co Ill (See letter 404 from Donald Perkins)

(4) Appraisment of his estate

In an economy largely subsistence in nature, details of appraisal of the personal property of his estate is of some historical interest. It was filed 2/27/1836, those making the appraisal were John Brofsfield, William Creekmore, and Levi Cox.

Corn was selling at 15¢ a bushel and meat at 8¢ a pound. Cattle were 6.44 each, and hogs at 1.60 each. But a good horse was worth $60.00. The total value of the personal estate (not including real estate) was $1015.00. When Jabez sold his Virginia land in 1813 he got $1000, a very large sum for his day. The fact that he had cash to loan indicates he was a substantial man for his times.

(5) Other Information

From Leslie Perkins of Rte 2 Rockholds Ky I have the following. Early settlers raised so many hogs because they could be fed on acorn mast in the forest. Before the Louisiana Purchase in 1803, the Mississippi route to markets was closed. So the only route east was through the Cumberland Gap about 20 miles southeast of Whitley County on The Wilderness Road. The drovers would buy cattle and hogs and drive them east to market.

It was not until about 1840 that the most rudimentary roads were built in the mountains. The creeks were the easiest passages into the hills. A trip of even 10 miles was a major undertaking.

According to Leslie, the creek bottoms, covered with a tough cane brake, were not the first areas cleared because the wooden plows could not turn the cane. Later settlers with iron plows cleared the cane. Jabez' widow elected not to take under the will, indicating there was a controversy over it. Records do not show what happened

Pioneer Life of Solomon Perkins

Record of his land transcations (patents) is in Appendix G. He had a head right grant from Ky in 1819. It was surveyed then. Under Ky law he would have had to be on the land for 2 years. Family tradition says he built his cabin in 1817. I have been shown the site of it by Leslie Perkins who still owns the farm (P 21) But he must have been in the area before for he married Nancy Freeman in 1814. His father was already in Knox Co in 1813.(See P 14). When his father Jabez finally acquired Ky lands in 1821, it was in the area of Jellico Creek about 20 miles from Meadowcreek.

In 1814 Meadowcreek must have been virgin timber territory with land densely covered by the great hardwoods. The trees were not at first cut down. They were ringed. First crops were planted between the trunks of the dead trees.Solomons land cost 50¢ an acre

Solomon's land went to his son John Felix and through him to its present owner Leslie Perkins. I have visited the farm 3 times since 1951. Solomon died at the age 38. The sale list of his personal property is shown on page 18. There were 2 stills for making whiskey. I cotton gin for combing the seeds out of cotton. A tobacco tub. These tell us something of the crops. There were 4 bee gums. There were 10 heifers,cows,or steers. 9 sheep. 47 pigs, sows, or shoats. The total brought by the sale was $176. 37 and 3/4ths of a cent.

I had never heard of the family of the Perkins's being in feuds, which mostly were family affairs. But James had a cousin Nancy Brown who m a Greenberry Hatfield(Gen 313 P 16) So maybe there is something to it.

Buck Perkins life

My father U S Grant Perkins knew his grandfather Buck but not his father who d when my father was only 2. Buck had 400 acres on Meadowcreek, some from his father Solomon, a still for whiskey, and a blacksmith shop, not a poor man by mountain standards. He was an autocrat. Ernest(Gen 4-111)tells the story that when his father John and John's brother were growing up, Buck used to beat them and their brother Jeff every Saturday for sins Buck knew they had comitted during the week. As angry young men, they knew they had sinned but also that Jeff never did anything wrong. Once they told their father that if he ever beat Jeff again they would kill him. The old man knew they meant it. He never beat Jeff again. He was a "Govamint" distiller- he paid his taxes. Of course,whiskey was a necessary cash crop and a way of turning surplus grain into a non perishable product. Buck also made medicinal whiskey for the Union army and often had it lifted by Confederate raiders from Tenn. The Perkins's, as Union men, often had to disappear into the hills with their livestock when the grapevine would bring news of Confederate parties. My father remembers that every fall Buck would have a festival for the entire neighborhood. He also gave handfuls of gold coins to his daughters when they got married. My father also remembers that Methodist ministers made his grandfather's house a gathering place. Bucks lands are detailed in App G.

Life of Dempsey Perkins (5)

He became a circuit rider for the Methodist Episcopal Church North in September 1869. He had the Booneville Circuit which according to family tradition consisted of 19 counties in the mountains. (Minutes of the September 1869 Conference on file at the Methodist Archives at Lake Junaluska NC.) He died in 1875 of tuberculosis. According to a cousin Truitt Alsip he would be gone most of the week, and ride all night after his last service on Sunday to get home in the morning. He would then change clothes and go to work in the fields without any sleep

In 1952 I talked to an old man, Riley Perkins who had known him as a young boy and knew of his repuation. Dempsey he said was called the Moody of the Mountains. The reference is to the evangelist Dwight Moody.

My father once wrote about his father as follows: "My father came into the ministry of the Northern Methodist Church after the close of the Civil War. (My family were anti slavery) He worked for its establishment under heavy social and poltical pressures." The reference is to the hatred left over in southern Kentucky as a result of the Civil War. He writes on: "My home and my grandfather's home were the endevous of all Methodist ministers.The meeting house in an oak grove not far away was the scene of many stirring revivals."

Recollections of grandmother Elizabeth Sharp Perkins

In 1940 I had a letter from a cousin of my father on his mother's side, J.B. Faulkner. Faulkner's mother Samantha and Elizabeth were sisters. Faulkner had been President of Union College in Barbourville Ky when my father went there between 1895 and 1902.

He wrote: "Since I was never fortunate enough to see either you or Jack (my brother) when I visited your father, I had come to the conclusion that I should never see you or so much as hear from you. Your letter was a pleasant surprise. ... I visisted your grandmother's home only once and then I was only a small boy. All your uncles and your father were still at home. Your father was near my own age but I was no match for him in size or strength. The family like mine had undergone many hardships, but your grandmother had been able to keep her own home. It really seemed to me that they were in better circumstances than my father.

" Your grandmother made an indelible impression upon me as a woman of character, gentleness, patience, and kindness. Her manner of speaking was very quiet and appealing.

Some of my father's recollections of his childhood at home

His home was a one room log house with a puncheon floor, (oak slabs laid on the ground with the flat side up) A porch ranged along one side, and a lean to with 2 small rooms along the other side.

There was a ladder in the ceiling that led to a loft where the 6 boys slept on straw mattresses. There was a field stone fire place for heat and cooking. The famil never owned a stove. The cabin stood just a few feet from running water and a spring.

For a few years he went to school about 4 months a year, the log school beir about 2 miles from his home. He walked. His first dog's name was Carlo. As a boy he owned a muzzle loading rifle and became a good shot. He could shoot a squirrel out of the top of a tree. He hunted and trapped. He trapped muskrat, possum, and minx, and got 75¢ for a minx skin

His mother saw that he liked to read and got him the Youths Companion. He to me he was raised on that magazine. In the fall he remembered an annual festival held at his grandfather Buck's home. There would be games, contests, shooting targets, prize being jugs of whiskey made at his grandfather's still. Oak staffs were used in logging tan bark oaks out of the forest. One contest was the breaking of the staffs. His uncle Timothy always won.

I have written a biography of my father's life, still in ms form, called Forgotten Is The Name. One chapter is called A Gatherin At Bucks

M. 5/21/83 Daniel Walker Story

Story of the life of U S Grant Perkins

I have written this story in a book, still in manuscript, called Forgotten Is T Name. His father died when he was 2 and his mother when he was 16. Until 19 he worked on the mountain farms if his brothers Joe and Felix. At the age of 19 he decided to join his older brother George in the State of Washington, which had just become a sta in 1889.

He was working harvests to earn enough money for the train ticket, but found himself stranded without money or a job in St Paul Minn, where he joined the army (lying about his age) He served around the Indian reservations at Fort Sully South Dakota and Fort Niobrara Nebraska.

At the latter fort he met an army chaplain who befriended him, got him out of the army early, with the intention of going to college to become a minister. The chaplain's name was Captain Orville Nave.

In 1895 he entered Union College at Barbourville Ky. He had only about 6 years of school before this and undoubtedly entered the high school division. In 1898 the Spanish War broke out. He had told me that he had organized his own company of Ky Cavalry. From the army archives I found that was true. His company was sent to Fort Thomas in Georgia where his company remained,because they hdd no equipment, until August 1898 (the war being almost over). There he got maleria which troubled him for years.

In 1901 he graduated and spent a year at Middlesboro Ky editing a small religious newspaper. In 1902 he entered Drew Theological Seminary in Madison N.J. where he graduated in 1902, taking a 3 year course in 2. There he won the European scholarship, but postponed it for a year.

During the 1904-1905 year he was in New York City, studied at Columbia University, and was associate pastor of Grace Methodist Church in Manhattan. But on May 5,1905 he sailed for Europe and Leipsig University Germany.

I have his diary of the voyage, of his travels in Europe, and of his student life in Germany. He did not like German militarism which he saw even then on all sides Later the same year of 1905 he was appointed by Bishop Burt, the European Methodist bishop, as pastor of the American Methodist Church in Rome during the sabbatical of its regular minister.

To get to Rome he walked through part of the Alps and wrote about that in an article in the Methodist Review in 1909 called The Passing of The Alps I only found that article (although I had about its title) in the Library of Congress in 1974.

From Rome in February and March of 1906 he took q 30 day trip to the Holy Land, and I have the diary of that trip.

In 1906 he rerurned to America, and took graduate courses at Harvard in the summer of 1906. One course was from James the famous psychologist. He had a chance to teach in a small college but opted to follow in his father's foot steps and to become a Methodist Minister.

Just before he went to his first appointed church he was guest preacher at Trinity Methodist Church in Louisville Ky where he met my mother Victorine who was the church organist at the age of 19. After they moved to northern Michigan where I my brother was born and where Victorine died.

During World War I he was in the YMCA work, not being able to get back into the army. He had a short career at Antioch College, which the YMCA for time thought to buy. The rest of his life was in small Methodist Churches where he lived with his second wife Lyla Maxfield.

Story of the migration west of George G. Perkins

George wentwest to Washington in 1889 from Whitley Co Ky. He was 18 and was also the year of his mother's death. There is a picture of all 6 sons of Dempsey White Perki taken while all were still at home in Ky.

He went first to Rosalia Wa, and about 1914 to Metaline Falls Wash. In 1892 the fatner of the writer, Grant Perkins,(Gen 56 P 23)was working hte harvests trying to ea enough for a train ticket to Washington where he had planned to join his older brother George. A depression starnded him in St Paul Minn and he joined the armyinstead.(See his story P 24) George remained a hunter frontiersman all his life. He built a house on the Pend Orielle River, and did logging, hunting, and some small farming.

John D. McDaniel's life

I have done no further work on the parents of John D. McDaniel.The 1850 census for Eldorado in Union Twp Ark(seen at Western Reserve Historical Soc Cleveland) lists a Morris and Susan McDaniel (Page 228). There are 3 other McDaniels in other towns in Union Twp. More work should be done in Arkansas and in 1860 and 1870 census.

His migrations. The death cert of their first child Leona (Gen 11) says that Ky is the state of nativity, probably Louisville.That would put him in Ky in 1886. From 1886-1889 Louisville directories show a John McDaniel,laborer, living at 1027 11th. The 1890 directory shows John D, a printerfor Klaubers(no other John.) In 1898 John D was a photographer for Klaubers. In 1903 he was a self employed photographer. In 1907 he is a photographer for the Louisville Police Department.

Family tradition has Victorine (Gen 12) born in Texas in 1887, John Shepherd (Gen 15) born in Nashville Tenn in 1893, and Lafayette (Fritz) born in Nashville in 1898 (Gen 16). I now know the trafition to be wrong in the latter case. I suspect they were all b in Ky, probably Louisville. (See death certificates)

So I believe he was in Louisville most of those years. I also understood that in the Louisville Police Department he had charge of the Bertilllion system of identification, used before finger printing.

John S. McDaniel Jr or his daughter could fill in the missing information.

The last child of John D. McDaniel and Loni Griffith McDaniel was Lafayette Askenstad McDaniel, (Gen 16 Page 3A this appendix)
The Lafayette was the name of his maternal grandfather. But Askenstad was a mystery. No wonder I always knew him as Fritz. But I believe I have solved the mystery. The McDaniel girls all died young, Leona age 20,Victorine age 28, Martha age 34, and Dedie age 45.

The attending physician for Leona, Martha and Loni their mother at their deaths was Dr. F.C. Askenstad. He was also prominent in Trinity Methodist Church where the McDaniels belonged. He could have been a relative or simply the family doctor.

16 Lafayette Askenstedt McDaniel (Fritz)

- b 12/3/1898 Louisville Ky. His children believed he had been b in Nashville Tenn. But in a trip to Louisville April 1982, I saw the church records of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church(now Trinity Temple). Fritz's father John D. McDaniel and mother were received into membership 11/21/1897 the same day that my mother was received in probationary membership at the age of 10. Lafayette was baptized in that church 1/22/1899 only about a month after his birth. Louisville directories show him to have lived in Louisville for some years before Fritz's birth, John D. McDaniel that is.

Fritz, as the writer remembers him, got into World War I by lying about his age. He served in France. After the War he learned to fly and did some barnstorming in trainer planes known as Jennies.He got into shipbuilding and worked on both coasts. For a time he had a toy manufacturing plant in Bennett NC. In his later years he worked as a civilian inspector for the Department of Defense. As a hobby he built ship models and carved in wood. When I was 5 after the death of my mother Victorine McDaniel Perkins, my brother Jack and I lived a while at Louisville. Fritz carved me a wonderful boat. His middle name was for the McDaniel family doctor, F.C. Askenstedt who took care of his sisters and hi parents according to the official death certificates. Fritz's first wife,mother of Ray, is now Mrs David Frantz of Wintersville Ohio

Oren Maxfield had a general store in the little northern Michigan town of Brutus for many years. As small boys we spent some summers there, my brother Jack and I

There was a railroad yard almost right in town, and even as small boys we played around the box cars. I remember one scary incident. I was on top and my younger brother was climbing up. I looked over the edge and said boo. He let go and fell backward , fortunately he had not gone up far enough and had the wind knocked o ut of him. But I was scared. Also there was an abanodoned copper mine nearby, dripping and scary. We explored in that also.

Patent Records in Whitley County Kentucky

For whom

For Jabez (2),William (28),Solomon (3),Timothy (34),John Felix (4),and Dempsey(5) Perkins in Whitley County Ky

Explanation of terms used

Warrant After Kentucky became a state in 1792, one wishing to buy land would pay the money and receive a warrant entitling him to so many acres

Survey. Later a survey was made by the State and dated. The warrant and the survey entitled one to a patent.

Patent was a deed for the land from the State of Kentucky signed by the Governor. Many would take possession without a patent. Warrants were bought and soldas stocks would be today. So many patents were issued to assignees of the original warrant

Most of the surveys used trees as corners or boundaries. From those descriptions one can get a good idea of the nature of the forests. There were the following trees: Sourwood; Poplar (100 feet high);White,Hickory,Spanish,Black Oaks; Dogwoods; Black Walnut;Beech;Chesnut;and Gum. Or a hardwood climax forest with trees of large aize

History of Kentucky land grants

Grants South of the Green River Before admission to the Union as a state,all of Kentucky had been the Kentucky County of Virginia. Virginia gave up these lands so the state could be formed. First grants were made in 1797. Grants of land in Whitley County (which had split from Knox County in 1818) came from the grants in this category. They were called headright grants. To qualify you had to be 21 and the head of a family and could get up to 200 acres at 50¢ an acre. All three of Solomon Perkins's (3) grants were headright grants. Possession for 2 years was required before a patent could be issued. Solomon got his first grant in 1819 some proof of the family tradition that he built his cabin there in 1817

Tellico Grants The grants to Jabez Perkins (2) and to his son William Perkins (28) were from the Tellico grants. These were lands ceded to the United States by the Cherokees in 1805 and then given to Kentucky. Their lands were on Jellico creek near the Tennessee border and about 20 miles away from where Solomon lived Spelling is a sometime thing. Jabez is spelled Jabes and Jobe. Jellico Creek is spelled Gilico, Gelico. I also suspect there was a mixed up even in Jellico for Tellico

Sources Kentucky Land Grants by Jillison 1925 In fact the girl who checked these in Frankfort used the Jillison book. He had been the surveyer for Kentucky. All of the patents only described the number of acres, the county, and the creek on which the land lay.

Explanation of grants shown on page

There are 14 state grants to the above ancestors and relatives and two deeds. I have photocopies of all in my files,organized into columns. The columns are as follows warrant column Warrant numbers were consecutive until 1832 and then were omitted Solomon's in 1819 was only the 78th in the entire state. He was an early settler.

survey date you will note that the survey usually took place years before the patent was issued, but sometimes close to it.

grantee was the person buying the land as grantor would be the person (or state) selling the land.

assignor Often the person buying the land would take an assignment of the warrant from someone who had already paid the state. In no 1 Solomon did not buy from Kentucky but from Thomas Wilkinson who probably owned the warrant for that 160 acres. Wilkinson also probably made a profit. land speculation started very early in this country. If no assignor is listed, the grant was from Kentucky where column indicates on which creek in Whitley County the land was located. M means Meadowcreek J means Jellico creek. Other locations are described in footnotes.

signed in the case of patents always by the Governor of Kentucky.

neighbors descriptions often would describe a call as being along the west line of a neighbor's land. Many neighbors named in the grants were people whose names later show up as wives or husbands.

See page 3 for complete listing of 16 grants found.

summary of land grants. Last name is always Perkins. County is Whitley except # 4

Ex 7. The Timothy Perkins in this grant is probably the son of Jabez who would have been 41 at the time of the grant. Jabez had a brother Timothy and a father by the same name, but they lived in Va.

A History of the land of Jabez Perkins (Gen 2 Page 12) in Grayson Co. Virginia

Deeds checked at courthouse at Independence Va. May 1975 and patent records checked at the State Archives in Richmond Va. April 1976

1 12/11/1807 Jabez bought 230 acres on Wilson Creek from his uncle Joseph Perkins, brother of Timoty Sr, for $300 Virginia money. Deed Vol 2 P 367 Grayson Co records. Joseph and wife Lois described as living in Ashe Co N C (only 5-10 miles away from Grayson)

Joseph had patented 530 acres on Wilson Creek Feb. 1800. Va. Patents Vol 45 No. 78)

2 11/11/1813 Jabez sold about 400 acres to William Harbert for $1000, a lot of money in those days. Deed Book 3 Pages 170 -172. He signed the deed in Knox Co. Kentucky (from which Whitley was later formed). So we know he was in Kentucky before 1813. Yet he never obtained a Kentucky patent until 1821. Nor could I discover that he had bought land from anyone else. I checked original Knox Co records in May 1975. It was hard going because there is no general index of names before 1873. But I searched every book page by page between 1810- and 1813 and found none.

B Activity in Grayson Co real estate of brothers and uncle Joseph of Jabez

1. Stephen Perkins (Gen. 18 Page 8) patented 265 acres on Wilson Creek 9/26/1796 (Book 35 Page 659). Patented 445 acres on Little Fox Creek Aug 1821(Book 70 Page 288). Bought 24 acres of David Jones 6/25/1799 (Deed Vol 1 Page 253) Bought 320 acres from Isa Jones 1813 (Deed Book 3 Page 320). A neighbor, according to the deed description in the last deed was William Screech. (see Gen. No. 25 Page 12)

3. Gordon Perkins (Gen. 17 Page 7) Bought 350 acres on Wilson Creek 8/18/1806 from his uncle Joseph for $400 (Deed Book 2 Page 365)

4. Aarod Perkins (Gen. 17 Page 4) His wife was Mary Pennington. (1) patent 400 acres on Wilson Creek 12/26/1808 Book 66 Page 70. (2) sold 265 acres to his uncle Joseph 5/6/1800. Book 1 Page 345. (This was the land later sold by Joseph to Jared.

5. Timothy Perkins(Gen. 184 P. 8 a gr son of Timothy Sr) bought land from Levi Jones in 1820 (Bk. 3 Page 519-20) His land was partioned in Grayson County in 1850. I have photcopies of those records.

6. Joseph Perkins (Brother of Timothy Sr) Patented 520 acres on both sides of Wilson Creek Feb 1800 (Bk 45 P 78) but he continued to live in Ashe Co N.C.

7. Lucy Perkins Young (Gen. 19 P 9) Her husband Joseph Young patented 735 acres on Wilson Creek in 1816

C. Observation of these records

These records show that Timothy Sr's sons Stephen (18),Jared (12),Gordon(17), Aarod (14), Jabez (the writer's ancestor)(13), and daughter Lucy (19) all eventually moved to Grayson Co. Va.

But Timothy's sons Lutheral(11), Timothy Jr (15) remained in Ashe Co N.C., an adjoining county even though in a different state.

In 1979 I visited Rep Carl Perkins (D) Kentucky in Washington. He told me his ancestors had come from Little Wilson Creek in Grayson Co. Va, but he did not know which. I said, " That is us". He may be from Gordon (17).

There is a Perkins cemetery near Volney Va. which I visited in October 1981. I was able to read the gravestones of Rebecca McGrady Perkins (Gen. 124), Arod Perkins(Gen. 126), Robert Perkins (Gen. 1221), and Charity Ellen Perkins Pennington (Gen. 1245). There were other old stones only partially readable and some totally so. Volney is on Big Wilson Creek on State Route 58.

Also on Route 58 is Mouth of Wilson, so named because Big Wilson Creek empties into the New River near where the South and North Forks of the New join.It was on the South Fork of the New River where Timothy Perkins Sr made his land entry 55 in April 1778 where the Gap Creek enters the river. This is about 10 miles distant from Mouth of Wilson in North Carolina

In 1976 the Appalachian Power Company had proposed a dam across the New River which would have indundated Mouth of Wilson, much of Big Wilson Creek, and the upper part of the New River. Apparently Virginia and North Carolina people protested. As a result then President Ford made parts of the New River into a Wilderness area. The New is truly a beautiful river. I have pictures taken in October 1981 of the very site where Timothy lived in 1788.

Genealogy of Edward Perkins of New Haven thru Joseph Perkins, father of Timothy Sr

1. Edward Perkins of New Haven

Life b April 1607 Hillmorton Parish Warwickshire England (See App K P 14)
m Elizabeth Butcher 3/20/1649 New Haven Conn.
d after 1687(In that year he deeded his home to son Johnathan)

Land In 1660 he had a deed from Rosaman Richards. In 1685 with his 3 sons he was entered as proprietors of commons lands. This reference is of historical interest. In 1684 James I revoked the charter of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and tried to do the same at New Haven. He sent an envoy to return the documents, but New Haven told him that they had been lost. They were not of course. The Connecticut Colonial Legislature then passed a law giving control of the commons lands to the original propietors and their descendants. This was an attempt to solidify individual land titles against the Crown's claims. A map of New Haven in 1641 shows suburban lands as being commons, one being the Warwickshire commons. (See Three Centuries of New Haven by Oberweiss)

Other Was seated among the soldiers in the meeting house Jan 1646.(P 547) Took oath of allegiance to the Colony 10/18/1648 . The town meeting asked him to become town chimney sweep 5/21/1655. He refused (P242) He was fined Jan 1655 (P 264) Was sitting among the soldiers Feb 1655.(P 271) On 10/4/1656 joined town militia (P 290) In 1657 was awarded damages when a neighbor's stock got into his fields (P 3). When he sold his lands he signed his name by mark.

In 1680 he made 3 seperate deeds to his sons apparently in anticiptation of death. There is no estate record.

In 1709 he and John Thompson staked out their individual shares in the 3rd division of Roundhill. In 1711 he bought 2 rods of Daniel Johnson. In 1712 he bought 7½ acres of Abigail Burr on Holmes Race. In 1724 he and his brother Peter sold land. In 1723 he sold land in the 5th division formerly owned by John Glover to his son Joseph for 3 hogs and Indian corn. In 1725 he sold a half interest in land where his father had lived, called Roundhill, to his son Joseph. In 1748 the map of New Haven shows a Perkins farmer next to Yale College. It was probably one of these.

Land Titles in Ashe Co N.C.(Originally Wilkes Co) of Timothy Perkins Sr(Gen 1. P 3), his brother Joseph Perkins (Appendix I Page 3 Gen 42), and Timothy's children.

1. Timothy Perkins Sr

He never got title to any land in Wilkes Co. He did have a land entry #55: " 17 April 1778. Timothy Purkins entered 400 acres both sides of New River, upper end of what is called Old Fields,crossing Deep Gap Creek including three improvements. One where said Purkins now lives; one that said Purkins bought of Samuel McQueen; and one where Royal Porter now lives. caveated by Benjamin Cleveland and Joseph Purkins."

From Land Entry Book Wilkes Co 1778-1781 compiled by Mrs W.B. Absher and published 1971 by The Genealogical Society of Old Wilkes Co. My Source 11.

He never received a patent or deed for this land. I believe he died in 1783. (See page 10 my Perkins mss) North Carolina got Crown lands by Act of 1778. Wilkes was former in April 1778. Timothy's No 55 was one of the first entries.

2 Joseph Perkins(brother of Timothy)

- Patent 200 acres on New River July 1798
- 27 acres from Sarah Gordon in 1803 (Deed Bk A P 502)
- He did acquire Grayson Co Va real property.(See Appendix H)
- he is reported to have got 4000 acres in Watauga Co adjacent to Ashe

3 Timothy Perkins Jr(son of Timothy Sr) (Gen 15 Page 5)

- Between 1798 and 1809 he had 11 deeds or grants of patents totalling 940 acres. He only sold land once to John Barton and Ball Sturgill. He signed the deeds and knew how to write. The complete record is in my Sources 11 and 12.

4 Stephen Perkins (Gen 152 P 5)(gr son of Timothy Sr)

- got 300 acres from Minean Hunt 12/4/1800 for $150(Vol A P 83 Deed Records)
- 100 acres patent from N.C. 1803 50 Shillings (Deed Vol B P 234)
- sold 100 acres to William Perkins (Vol B P 62)He signed the deed in Grayson Co Va. He migrated to Bureau Co Ill about 1834

5 Lutheral Perkins (son of Timothy Sr) (Gen 11 P 3)

- bout 200 acres from Sam Wilcoxin on Gap Creek in 1805. Deed Bk B P 360 went west

6 William Perkins (not identified. not a son of Timothy Sr or Joseph)

- Bot from Stephen Perkins see above
- There were 8 other land deals in my Source 12.

7 Other sons of Timothy Sr

The following other sons of Timothy Perkins Sr never acquired any Ashe Co real estate but were active in Grayson Co Va land. The sites of the Perkins Old Fields Land in Ashe and Little Wilson Creek in Grayson were only about 10 miles apart. These were Jared(Gen 12 P 3); Jabez(my ancestor) (Gen 13 P 4); Aarod (Gen 14 Page 4); Gordon (Gen 17 P 7); Stephen (Gen 18 P 8);and Lucy Perkins Young (Gen 19 Page 9)

The English Ancestors of Edward Perkins of New Haven

A Introduction

In 1975 my information was incomplete and based on a mss of Dow Perkins deposited in the Wilkesboro N.C. public library.In 1982 he lived at 428 SE 4th Ave Apr 212B Deerfield Beech Fla 33441

In that mss he wrote that Edward Perkins of New Haven was a first cousin of John Perkins of Ipswich Mass.,and had come from Hillmorton Parish Warwickshire England. (Source K-9)

That triggered my memory. 25 years ago I had bought a booklet about the English ancestors and descendants of John Perkins of Ipswich.(Source K-1) I had laid it aside because I could not find my ancestors there. Suddenly it was relevant and the English ancestors of Edwardof New Haven would be the same as those of John Perkins of Ipswich. In this and many other respects we owe a real debt to Dow Perkins.

In the summer of 1977 I did original research in the Hillmorton Paris Records in Warwick England and into the Lichfield wills. But before, while in Cleveland, Ohio as a retired visiting judge, I found the Hillmorton Parish recor in Source 7 in The Cleveland Public Libtary, plus other data. So my English trip was verification.

The search for the father of Edward Perkins in England was complicate by a multiplicity of possible Edwards's, cousins etc. I have included as many collateral lines as possible toassist others.

B Genealogy of Peter Morley (Morliaux?) Perkins (1) through Thomas Perkins (10), father of Edward Perkins of New Haven (10-3)

1 Peter Morley Perkins living 1381 m Agnes Taylor,dau John Taylor. Was of Shropshire. He was a sergeant of Lord Hugh DeSpencer who was descended from a Norman nobleman. The Perkins's had a permanent feudal place with the DeSpencers for generations. (Source K-2) One son known

2 Henry Perkins son of Paeter, nothing more known his son (Sources K-1 and K-2) was living 1399. He was Seneschal (steward) to Thomas DeSpencer,Earl of Gloucester. In the reign of Richard II,Thomas DeSpencer got a restoration of the lands of his grandfather which had been confiscated many years before. This was in 1398. The grandfather was Hugh DeSpencer.

3 John Perkins

Thomas DeSpencer's petition reveals the huge extent of their estates:

> "It appears that Hugh Despencer was then possessed of 50 lordships, 28,000 sheep,1000 oxen and steers,1200 kine and their calves, 40 mares with their colts of 2 years.160 drawing horses,2000 hogs, 3000 bullocks,40 tuns of wine, armour plate,jewels,and ready money better than 10,000 llbs, and a library of books."(Source K-9)

But laterin 1398 he participated in the deposing of Richard II by Henry IV. On January 5,1400 he was beheaded for his pains and his estates again forfeited. But in 1390 his steward John Perkins had 18 acres in Madresfield . (K-1 and K-2) his son (Page 39 K-2* was:

4 William Perkins

d c 1451 marr Margaret (perhaps) Collee. He was bailiff of Humphrey Plantagenet Duke of Gloucester, a DeSpencer.(Source K-2 page 39) He was the first owner of Ufton Robert or Ufton Court in Berkshire.

In feudal times estates were subject to a higher service or authority, the King being the ultimate owner. He could confiscate all. But often land was held in fealty to the Church, called an advowson. As early as 1411 William Perkins was named in the Diocesan Register as holding Ufton Robert.

In 1451 the advowson was presented to Thomas Perkins (5) indicating the death of William Perkins (4)(Sources K-1 and K-2)

5 Thomas Perkins

In 1478 a church inquiry probably at his death called him an armiger (armor bearer. The inquiry only listed him as owning Foxell Court in Sulhamstead Abbotts. (Source 2-K page 42 and 227) But he was known to have inherited Ufton Robert.

In 1461 at the beginning of the reign of Edward IV at the close of the Wars of the Roses, Thomas Perkins, the Earl of Warwick, and the Earl's brother Lord Montague were trustees of land of a defeated Lancastrian Bernard Brocas, probably a friendly arrangement to save Brocas's land from confiscation.

We know that Thomas Perkins (5) son John Perkins (51) inherited Ufton Court. (Source K-2 page 43). The land he held at his death was from the Abbey at Reading and therefore safe from the King's confiscation.

Thomas Perkins (5) is also said to be of Mattisfield (Madresfield)(Source K-2 chart at page 226)

His older brother John Perkins (51) inherited Ufton Court in Berkshire. His brother Thomas Perkins (52) inherited Madresfield. As was often the case of the younger sons, he left Berkshire for Warwickshire and founded the Hillmorton branch. This branch was Puritan. The Ufton Court branch remained Catholic

But he must have had some interest in Ufton Court because in 1495 he was a trustee in an Ufton Court settlement (K-2 pages 46 and 226)

Explanation: From this point on I have much moredata from the Hillmorton Parish Records and the Lichfield wills obtained in a 1977 trip to England (See Source 6) As to the Lichfield wills some terms. (1) Will Rec means there was a will which I read or had copied (2) Inv means there was a will but found but inventory often gave estate data. (3) Act Bk means that a will was not found but references to its terms was in an Act Book kept by the church in Latin. The will records were not in Warwick but in Lichfield, the seat of the Bishop. In those days all probate matters were handled by the Church. An archivist helped translate.

significance of this generation

This Thomas Perkins (9) had 10 children. The father of Edward Perkins of New Haven will be Thomas Perkins (9-10)

According to Dow Perkins (Source K-4) 5 Perkins relatives from Hillmorton came to America in the 1600's. I have been able to identify these 5 and their relationship to Edward Perkins of New Haven (Gen 10-3) and with each other. I am certain that thousands of Perkins's now in America come from these 5.

They are:
(1) John Perkins of Ipswich Mass(923 son of Henry Perkins (92)
(2) Isaac Perkins (952) son of Edward Perkins (95) he married Alice Perkins,a widow who had come over with John Perkins of Ipswich with her children in 16
(3) Isaac Perkins (982) son of Iscahe Perkins (98) immigrant to Hampton N H in 1636 with his brother Abraham
(4) Abraham Perkins (987) son of Isache Perkins (98) immigrant in 1636 to N H
(5) Edward Perkins (10-3 and 11) immigrant to New Haven before 1646

Thomas Perkins (9)

On the same ship Lyon a passenger was Alice Perkins(see App K page)

He may be Edmond Perkins (Gen 5112-121 page App K page 3) He is said to have died in England (Source K-8) her children started the famous Boston branch of the Perkins family.

This Edward (925)is probably not Edward of New Haven. Why

This Edward (925) was a brother and not a first cousin of John Perkins of Ipswich (923) as reported in 2 sources.If this Edward (925) marr Alice Harding he could not have been Edward of New Haven who married Elizabeth Butcher in New Haven Ct in 1649. Conversely, if this Edward (925) is Edward of New Haven, there is no Hillmorton Parish record of a death of an Alice Perkins before he left for America. For these reasons I do not think this Edward (925) is Edward of New Haven.

This is Edward Perkins of New Haven. The reasons for so deciding

(1) Defintely eliminated Edward Perkins(95) son of Thomas Perkins (9) because he died in England in 1619 (Page 7)
(2) Definitely eliminated Edward Perkins (957) son of Edward Perkins (95) who died in Englandin 1643 (see page 7 this App)
(3) Definitely eliminated Edward Perkins (991) son of John Perkins (99) because of age factors. He would have been 103 at death in 1685. Too unlikely.
(4) Probably eliminated Edward Perkins (925) son of Henry Perkins (92) because of an English marriage in 1637 (Edward Perkins of New Haven married Elizabeth Butcher in 1649 in New Haven) and because Edward (925) would have been a brother and not a first cousin of John Perkins of Ipswich (923)
(5) Definitely eliminated a non Hillmorton Edward Perkins,son of William Perkins, a merchant tailor of London, because he was the executor of his father's will in England in 1657 (See This appendix Page)
(6) Edward Perkins (10-3) is a first cousin of John Perkins of Ipswich (923) as stated by Dow Perkins (Source K-9)
(7) Edward Perkins (10-3) was known to be alive in 1685. If born 1607 he would been 78 in 1685, well within probabilities
(8) Internal evidence . As was usual in England, his older brother Isaac Perkin (10-1) inherited the family business, the Inn at Hillmorton, but left Edwar 40 lbs payable 9 years after his death. This was a fairly large inheritanc for its day. The father, Thomas Perkins (10) died in 1630. The earliest tha Edward could collect his inheritance was 1639. She shows up in New Haven in 1646. There was little incentive for younger brothers to stay around home. believe he took his inheritance and came to America

C Elimination of Edward Perkins son of William Perkins, merchant tailor of London as Edward of New Haven

In 1977 I found in the Cleveland Public Library the following in Vol 9 of the Connecticut Magazine page : (Source K-13)

" If these notes are correct, then Edward Perkins of New Haven was the son of William Perkins and Mary Purchas Perkins" His second wife.

Following this lead I found in The New England Register for 1856 (Source K-13) and in the same magazine in 1922 (Source K-13) a complete line of this Edward Perkins back for 5 generations. The birthdate of this Edward Perkins was given as 1/22/1622. This is the birthdate given for Edward Perkins of New Haven in The Compendium of American Genealogy Vol 6 page 193, which I saw at the New Haven Colony Historical Society in 1974

So I thought then that Edward of New Haven had the lineage in England suggested above. Then I found in The New England Register for 1922 Vol 76 page 232 that this Edward became executor of his father William's will in Enland in 1657 and died in England in 1669

That eliminates him as Edward of New Haven despite the statements in The Magazine Connecticut and the birth date in The American Compendium

E History of Alice Perkins, widow,immigrant to Ipswich Mass in 1630 with John Perkins (923)

She came to America as a widow with 3 small children in 1630 and married Isaac Perkins (952) in America. Her antecedents have been hazy, but in the material sent t me by Enoch Perkins Jr in 1977 (my source 8 page 6) I read:

> "Alice Perkins widow of Edmond Perkins who died in England.
> He was a member of the Ufton Court,Berks Co England family. He (Edmond) > went to Hillmorton and married a distant relative Alice Perkins. Alice > Perkins's son Edmond was the ancestor of the illustrious Perkins family > of Boston."

The Enoch Perkins material gives the Edmond Perkins genealogy as follows
(the generation numbers are those in Appendix K)
5112 (page 3) William Perkins marr Anne Wellees
5112-1 Francis Perkins marr Anne Plowden (inherited Ufton Court from his uncle(Pag 5112-12 Edmond Perkins marr 3 times
5112-212 Edmond Perkins of Hillmorton marr Alice Perkins

It was never clear whether Alice Perkins's Edmond was the son of her 2nd marr to Isaac Perkins or of her 1st marr. The Enoch Perkins material says the latter.

F Possible English Ancestry of Nicholas Perkins of Virginia immigrant to Virginia c 16

I once thought I was descended from this Nicholas Perkins. Wm K. Hall has done a work on his descendants, but of his English ancestry he simple said- antecedents unkown.

In 1974 in Source 4 I read a statement that Nicholas's father was Aden Perkins who had been one of the investors in the 2nd Virginia Company. and his grandfather Richard Perkins who married Monpesson. However the Richard Perkins (5111 page 2) who marr Monpesson died without children. But Nicholas's lineage may be:

5211-11 Aden Perkins
5211-111 Nicholas Perkins of Virginia.

G Historical events in England between 1630 and 1646

I find that 9 Perkins's came from England between 1630 and 1646. 2 were brothers 4 were 1st cousins, and 3 were more distantly related.(see generation numbers)

They were 923 John Perkins of Ipswich Mass son of Henry Perkins (92) 1630
952 Isaac Perkins son of Edward (95) who marr Alice Perkins
981 Isaac Perkins son of Isache (98) moved to Hampton N H
982 Abraham Perkins son of Isache (98) also moved to Hampton N H
9-103 Edward Perkins son of Thomas (9-10) to New Haven Conn about 1640
Rev William Perkins of Topsefield Mass (App K page 10)
Alice Perkins (App K pagell)

They were all probably puritan This was the period of the reign of Charles the 1st (1625-1649 when he was executed. It was also the time when Bishop Laud of the Anglican Church was trying the bring the Puritans, who were in the majority but were dissenters, into line. The puritans, unlike the Pilgrims who had formed their own church and had left for Holland, had never actually left the Anglican Church.

Only 8 days before dissolving Parliament Charles had granted a charter to the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The Puritans at once saw this as an opportunity. Thus started the great puritan migration. John Perkins (923) sailed with John Winthrop in 1630.

J.P. Green in his Short History of The English People wrote : "As Laud's hand grew heavier the number of Puritan immigrants grew fast. Three thousand immigrants arrived from England in a single year. Between the sailing of Winthrop's expedition (1630) and the Long Parliament- a space of ten or eleven years- two hundred ships had crossed the Atlantic and twenty thousand Englishmen had found refugre in the west." I. A brief description of the feudal system of social organization in England

Before the Norman conquest in 1066 there were many freeholders of land in England who owned land much as we do today, free of any restraint or other people's control. But because of the incessant wars freeholders had to seek the protection of the thegns or war lords and to exchange freedom for security. So even before William the essentially military organization of feudalism was taking hold.

William seized almost all the great land holdings of the Anglo-Saxons. He parcelled them out to his barons, so that the meanest Norman could become rich, but always with a string attached to him. To enjoy their lands they had to provide him with soldiers and various services and buildings and castles, etc. The baron then sub divided the land requiring their sub feigs to do the same. So you had a pyramid of money and services peaking in the King. But in order that the barons would not become kings in their own lands, William required the individuals in the entire kingdom to swear allegiance to him personally, and kept control of the dourts (called the hundreds and the shires). He also levied some direct taxes on the manors and sent commissioners out to gather information on which to make the levies. These were the source of the famous Domesday Book.

As everyone was attached to a liege lord, Peter Morley Perkins was attached to Hugh DeSpencer in the 1300s. This DeSpencer was descended from a DeSpencer who had been one of Williams barons. The fact that the Perkins continued in the service of the DeSpencers is shown in the fact that John Perkins 75 years later served Thomas DeSpencer as Seneschal or sheriff. This DeSpencer was Earl of Gloucester who was of a group that tried to have Richard II restored to the throne after Henry IV had compelled his abdication in 1399. For this treason Thomas DeSpencer was beheaded by Henry IV in 1400

This Thomas DeSpencer's grand father had gotten into similar trouble back in 1326 when he fought for the King and against the power of the barons. In 1327 the barons confiscated his estates and killed him without trial.

I have had this item for at least 20 years. Mainly it is the story of the antecedents and descendants of John Perkins of Ipswich Mass (Gen 923 this append But I did not realize its significance until in Source 4 I learned that John Perk (923) was a 1st cousin of Edward Perkins (11 page 9)

> "On a flight from Tehran to London last week my seat mate was Gordon Perkins of Boise of Boise Idaho(a first cousin once removed of the writer Paul M. Perkins) Naturally we quickly got on the subject of family history,and he told me of the work you had done. I am descended from Abraham Perkins of Hampton N H (987)The work I have dates back to 1911. It was originally done by David Page Perkins and updated by my great uncle David Page Perkins. I am enclosing a copy of it."

This mss had some new data but its greatest help was in the verification of information I already had but needed further proof about.And particularly that I did have the right Edward of New Haven. Small world.

From page 3 5112-11 Story of Alexander Pope's poem The Rape of The Lock

In 1712 the famous English poet,Alexander Pope, wrote a light satirical poem,the Rape of the Lock, about an event in London society. Arabella Fermor (later Mrs Francis Perkins,grandson of Francis Perkins (5112-11 page 3 this Appendix) was a famous London beauty. A young Londoner secretly cut a lock of her hair. This caused a serious quarrel between she, her family and the family of the young man. It was a well known quarrel in London society.

A friend suggested to Pope that he write a humerous piece about the event to quiet the hostilities. He did but it angered Arabella. Pope made some kinds of amends and they later became good friends. There is a friendly and affectionate letter from Pope to her after her marriage to Francis Perkins IV.

He was not the only London poet who wrote of her. Thomas Parnell has one which begins: "From town fair Arabella flies. The beaus,unpowdered, grieve."

In Appendix K I did not carry forward the descendantsof Francis Perkins (5112-11 page 3) But from Source2 (page 114) I learned that Fancis Perkins IV and Arabella had 4 children, Francis V,James,and Charles Perkins. Ufton Court was inherited by the oldest brother Francis V who died unmarried. Ufton Court then passed to the younger brothers James and Charles who let the estate go to pot. The two brothers died and left Ufton Court to their youngest brother John who had no children. Thus Ufton Court passed out of the Perkins family in 1769

At the time of the death of the last Perkins owner, John, there was a Catholic priest resident at Ufton Court (Source 2 page 129) Thus ended the Ufton Court direct line. The line from Warwickshire were Puritan. emigrated to America and number in the tens of thousands.

The story of Ufton Court estate once owned by an ancestor

In the Village of Ufton Nervet about 7 miles from Reading there is a manor house called Ufton Court. When I visited it in June 1977 I found it in beautiful condition. It is now used by the Berkshire County schools as an outdoor education center where groups of school children come for several days at a time. The grounds, gardens, and buildings are well kept up.

The manor and house were acquired by William Perkins in 1424(see Appendix K. P 2) Much of the present structure however dates from about 1500. From a document in my possession I find: " The main glory of the parish is Ufton Court which was owned by the Perkyns family from the 15th century (1424) until 1782. ... After the Reformation members of this family were renowned R C(Roman Catholic) recusants and Ufton Court became a well known mass centre . ... The exterior is mainly Elizabethean in the form of an E and only minor additions are of later date. ... one of the most attractive houses in England. ...During the last war the house was used as a hospital."

What happened to it. In England the eldest son inherited all the property So Ufton Court became the property of Thomas Perkins 5 in App K Page 2). His son was John. A brother of John was William (No 6 Appendix K P 3 our ancestor) who not seeing any future hanging around Ufton Court to be cared for by his older brother went to Hillmorton Parish to start the Hillmorton branch from whom we are descended.

Ufton Court continued to another Thomas and then to Richard who married a Mompesson . In the hall of Ufton Court near the ceilng there is carved a crest with the names of Richard and his wife Mompesson. It went from Richard to his son Francis. Outside on the lead downspouts there are the initials F P for Francis Perkins. This was Elizabethean times. Later generations of the family let the manor house go to disrepair however. There is a book I have not been able to find The History of Ufton Court by Jane Sharp . If you want to visit Ufton Court take A4 out of Reading 7 miles to Newbury. At Jack's Booth (a pub) turn left about 3 miles to Ufton Nervet and inquire the exact location at the Ufton Nervet Parochial School. That is what I did in June 1977.

The Western Branch of Jabez's Perkins Family

Jabez Perkins (1766-1835)(Gen. 2 Page 12 my mss) had 2 sons who went to Illinois in 1834 and then spread to Iowa and Nebraska. They were Timothy Perkins and Jesse Alvin Perkins(Gen 21 and 23 page 12 of my mss) This appendix follows what is known to the writer of their descendants.

Sources are 13,22,and 30, described at the end of the Appendix. An index of names in this appendix is seperately provided. The same generation numbers will be used as in the mss.

Justice of Peace John Gay was delayed by losing his horse getting to the wedding. The bridal party mounted their horses and went looking for him. When they found him "it was agreed the wedding should take place then and t here Nearby was a vacant shanty which had been built to hold a claim.It was filthy having been the resort of deer and cattle. But it answered the purpose of breal the wind. After the happy couple mounted their horses and started on the wedding tour. Squire Gay returned home with a two dollar fee."

description of Sources

I have described my sources in the mss Genealogy And History Of One Branch of the Perkins Family In America Originating With Edward Perkins Immigrant To New Haven Conn before 1646.

This appendix is a part of that mss. But since this appendix is being sent seperately to some of my correspondence and to the Nebraska State Library, I will describe the sources pertaining to this part here, even though duplicated in the mss.

Source 13 Letter and information from Elsie Perkins Conner in 1978. Contained information as to the migration of Stephen Perkins(Gen. 152 P 5), of Timothy Perkins(Gen 21 P 12), and of Jesse Alvin Perkins(Gen 23 P. 12) All to Putname(now Bureau Co) Ill. From here many then went to Iowa and then Nebraska. Also exerpts from Reminiscences of Bureau County Illinois by Matson, 1872. Also information about the Perkins Cemetery there

Source 14 Copy of family bible records in the possession (1978) of Mart Perkins 10771 Black Mountain Rd Apt 42 San Diego Ca. 92126 (refers to Gen 154 P 5 of Revised Appendix N-O)

Source 15 Complete genealogical charts from Elsie Conner (Gen. 124-111 Revised App N-O Page 4) For Jesse Alvin Perkins (Gen. 1), Elijah Girton Perkins (Gen.12 Revised App. N-O P 2),William Roscoe Perkins (Gen 124 P. 3 Revised App N-O P 3),and Merlin Theo Perkins (Gen 124-11. P 4 Revised App. N-O)

Source 23 23A material received from Elsie Conner consisting of a copy of 10 pages of work done by Dow Perkins about the pre revolutionary pioneers in New Haven etc.
23B further confirming data as to the descendants of Jesse Alvin Perkins Gen 23 Page 12 or page 1 of this appendix)From Elsie Conner.

Source 21 Information from Cathy Perkins Hollingshead of Wickenburg Az about the descendants of Eli Sheridan Perkins (Gen. 347 Page 17 of my mss) This is included in part 2 of Revised App N-O Page 7

Source 29 Genealogical material supplied by Mili Morrow of Denver Co(Gen 1556-1 Appendix N-O Page 4) about the descendants of Jesse Alvin Perkins (Gen 23 P 12 of my mss and Gen 1 of Revised App N-O) This was in addition to the data in the other sources.

Source 30 Information sent January 1982 by Donald Perkins Ft Lauderdale Fla (Gen, 1557-1 Revised App N-O P 4) This corrected previous erroneous information that Jesse Alvin Perkins(Gen 23 P 12 my mss and Gen. 1 Revised App N-O) had a son Solomon Perkins. Instead I learned that that Solomon Perkins was a son of Timothy Perkins, a brother of Jesse Alvin. (See Timothy Gen. Gen. 21 P 12) ~~As a result I took that data out of Jesse Alvin's line and made a new appendix T to cover those decedents of Timothy (Gen 23) down to Darline Ruth(Gen. 2 1010-1~~ App T.

Paul M. Perkins, Judge

To my McDade relatives:

I am enclosing a revision of my Appendix R, about Blossom's family. I did most of this revision before Blossom and I left for an Iowa vacation late in June. . While there I checked further into the Clarence Elliott and Ophelia Ackerman story in Iowa census records, and in Eldora and Ackley Iowa.

As you can see in new pages10 and 11 I have pushed the known generations back one more.

It was on our returning from this happy vacation that Blossom had her two strokes and died July 10,1982 in Iowa City. But I wanted to complete this in her honor

I have suggested where the story can be further pursued and I hope it will be.

I am typing this through my tears because my loss is so huge, but I know that in time the memories will fill the void.

Thanks to the McDades, the Elliotts, the Hennebergers, and the Ackermans for such a wonderful person as Blossom.

July 31,1982

The McDade Family

Introduction

This appendix is a part of my Perkins family history manuscript and tells the story of the family of my wife Blossom McDade Perkins.(See Page 25 of the mss) It will be sent as a seperate article to members of her family.

Sources are (1) notes of Edwin C. McDade,her father (2) work done by Scott McDade, her nephew (3) much information gathered in a trip to Hagerstown Md in the fall of 1981 (4) census records seen in Seattle and Cleveland (5) information from a professional genealogist Chris Ramsey,1206 Oak Hill Ave,Hagerstown Md 21740,whom I employed for further work. All this has been gathered into Source 28 in the Source Book of the Perkins manuscript.

Family tradition says that an ancestor came to America from Ulster about 1800. At this time that cannot be verified. Mr. Ramsey found no county naturalizations from 1790 on. Lancour's Bibliography of Ship's Passenger Lists,1538-1825 lists no McDades. Teppers Passengers to America list no McDades before 1800. I have not followed this further.

In the first edition of this Appendix I had to deduce the chain of ancestors from a complicated set of facts. For example, I said Walter McDade (Gen 2) was probably the father of Charles McDade (Gen 3). Mr. Ramsey found the baptismal record of Charles plainly showing that his father was Walter. Even though my Holmesnian deductions were correct, I can skip all that in the revised version. I start with the earliest known ancestor as Generation 1.

1 Charles McDade
b c 1760-1765 (over 45 in 1810 census) (Washington Co Md,Hagerstown)
d c 1810-1820 (In 1800 and 1810 census. not in 1790 or 1820 census)(no estate rec) m unk Elizabeth ca 1788 (assume 20 at time of marriage) (no marr rec) she b c 1768 d 2/10/1842 Wash Co Md (gravestone says 74 at death). Ramsey could not identify her. But the accounting in the estate of Thomas McDade identifies her as his mother.(See Gen 14 P 3)

identification of Charles (1) as the true ancestor

Facts drawn from the 1800 and 1810 census are consistent with the known facts. The only McDade in Washington Co Md in 1800 was Charles McDade,listed as family head.

1800 Census	1810 census	known family name	born	Gen No
male 26-45	male over 45	Charles (father)	1760-1765	1
female 26-45	female 26-45	Elizabeth(mother)	1768	1

	male under 10
	female under 10	Elizabeth(Jones) ?	unk	15
	female under 10	Female(Frankenberry?)	unk	16
	a free person *

* The presence of a person not a dependent on Charles may mean that more than one person was in the household of Charles McDade (1). From these census facts it seems almost certain that Charles (1) was the true ancestor . The McDades in Md in 1790 census were two Daniel McDades in Montgomery Co. Two John McDades in Montgomery. Two Patricks and a Phillip in Montgomery. And a Neal McDade in Harford. Montgomery is near Washington DC and Harford near Baltimore. In 1790 no McDades in Wash Co, which would be frontier land west. I have no idea who these McDades were.

Revised July 1982

Children of Charles McDade (probable 8. 6 known)

11 Walter McDade (known gr gr grandfather of Blossom McDade Perkins)

12 William McDade
b 1800 (gravestone says age 48)
d 3/17/1848 Wash Co Md. bur Riverview Cem(Cem Records Vol 1 P 271)
m Catherine Barnes Wsh Co 2/25/1826 (Marr Records)
she b 1804 (gravestone says age 45 and widow of William McDade) she d 12/22/1849 Wash Co Md (Cem Rec Vol 1 P. 271). Hagerstown is in Wsh Co.

his estate D without a will. No children. final accounting of his estate shows his heirs at law, these being the same as the heirs at law of his brother Thomas McDade (Gen 14),who also died without children and unmarried. (See Final account in Source 28 from Hall of Records,Annapolis Md.)It is from these two accounts that I get the names of the children of Charles McDade (1).

her estate Catherine McDade died in 1849. She had a will. (See PC in Source 28). First it proves that she and William had no children. She leaves her property to her neice Margaret Frankenberry, thus proving there was a female McDade who married Samuel Frankenberry, leaving 5 Frankenberry children. That female would have been a sister of Catherine's husband William. As an alternate devisee, she leaves her property to the children of Mary Downey, her sister in law, thus proving that Mary McDade Downey was a sister of her husband William.

his property Between 1830 and 1843 William McDade by 3 deeds acquired about 15 acres of land in Wash Co Md. This is the same 15 acres which later in 1849 and 1850 the heirs at law of William McDade deeded to his widow Catherine McDade. I have copies of 2 of those deeds in Source 28. The 2 deeds from the Frankenberry children to Catherine are summarized by Chris Ramsey in his letter of June 3,1982 (No),also in Source 28. The significance of these deeds is that the grantors are the same as the heirs at law listed in the final accountings filed in the estates of William McDade (12) and Thomas McDade (14) These heirs at law would also be the children of Charles McDade (1) surviving in 1849 and 1850.

He reported Downey family to be in the Co but could find no land or cem records for Peter Downey or Mary McDade Downey. Yet they were known to be alive according to the will of Catherine McDade (Gen 12) in 1849 and identified in that will as Catherine's sister in law. They had children but names and number are unk.

In the original version of App R I had placed Mary McDade Downey as a sister of Charles McDade (3). This is a change.

Significance of these accounts

First, it is from Thomas's account that we learn the given name of his mother Elizabeth, wife of Charles (1). Second, we know by the deeds discussed in the next section that Charles in these accounts was Charles (3), a nephew, who could only be an heir at law if his father Walter (2) was already dead in 1841.

Therefore, the Walter McDade listed as an heir at law in these accounts and as a grantor in the deeds could not be the father of Charles (3), the Walter (2) but a brother of Charles (3). Of course, there is a discrepancy in the percentage, which I cannot account for. But I am certain of one thing: almost universally in the laws of intestate descent (no will) a son does not inherit from his uncle if the son's father is living.

From this I have concluded that the Walter, heir at law above, is not the father of Charles (3) but his brother.

Deeds to Catherine, William's widow, in 1848 and 1849

When William McDade (12) died in 1848 half his estate went to his wife Catherine. But in 3 deeds the owners of the other half deeded her the 15 acres which William had owned when he died. In her will after Catherine died she left everything to her neice Margaret Frankenberry. (See Page 2) Margaret was probably the youngest because in the 1850 Wash Co census she is listed alone, age 17

1. Deed Vol IN3-48 Page 744 (copy Source 28) to Catherine McDade

   grantors: Walter McDade(apparently unmarried. signs by mark)
   Charles McDade and Ann his wife(Charles signs Ann by mark)
   Mary Downey and husband Peter Downey(both sign their names)

2. Deed Vol INS-3 Pages 748-749(Ramsey letter No Source 28)

   grantors: Edward S. Frankenberry, no wife
   William H. Frankenberry and Susan his wife
   both of Wash Co Md

3 Deed July 12,1849 (no volume listed. also Ramsey letter)

   grantors: Elizabeth Frankenberry and Catherine Frankenberry residents of Shirleysburg, Huntingdon Co Pa.

Apparently Elizabeth McDade Jones did not sign off. And Margaret Frankenberry was a minor and ultimate benificiary anyhow.

Other census facts about two Walter McDades

There are two Walter McDades in Wash Co Md in the 1850 census. Walter (Index P 012 Williams) is listed alone age 50, laborer. Therefore he could not be the brother of Charles (3), whose father Walter (2) did not marry until 1819. I have already given my reasons for concluding that Walter (2) was already dead.

The other Walter (Index Page 038 Williams) I could not find on the page indicated in the index. I had no time in Cleveland to look through the entire micro film role.

1. Charles McDade (024 2nd Subdivision. could not find in Cleveland)(not Charles (3)
2. Samuel McDade (293 1st District)
3. The two Walters listed above.

migration. Sometime after his marriage in Hagerstown in 1847 he went with his family to then Berkely Co Va(now West Va) which adjoins Wash Co Md. In the 1850 census he is listed as head of family, age 27, with his wife Anne,age 21 and 1 son Martin, age 1. The ages are correct. Sometime after 1850 he moved back to Wash Co and bought an 80 acre farm 2 miles west of Hagerstown. It can be seen from present IS 40 and still is a working farm. Here he carried on his trade of a shoemaker and farmed. Scott McDade got pictures of this farm some years ago.

Will.(Will Rec G P 401 cc in Source 28) signed in 1881. It is verification of the names of his children. It is interesting for other reasons. He arranged for his son Harland to continue to farm, and after 4 years to have the first shot at buying it by paying off the others. Price $75 an acre. He provided that his daughter Ida Salllie, then married, should have her share to herself,with no control by her husband. This illustrates that then for the most part,women could not own property seperately. It was controlled by their husbands. Now no longer true in law. He also kept track of what his children borrowed and provided that any amount owing should be an advancement against their share. He put down the amounts owing at the time he made the will. Blossom's grandfather Elmer Wolford owed him $1000 in 1881, probably a college debt.

Elmer's life

He went to Dickenson College and Seminary and became a Methodist minister. Date of graduation unknown. But his entire ministry was spent in Iowa where he moved just after his marriage in Hagerstown Md in 1881. A partial list of the towns where he lived- Altoona, Bedford, Clarinda, Boone, and Atlantic Iowa. He retired to Des Moines where Blossom and I visited him about 1938 . His second wife was always called Mama Grace. We have a photograph of a Dr. Charles Little, a seminary professor. He taught Elmer Church History at Dickinson, and also had the same subject at Garrett in Evanston Ill for Elmer's son Charles. He baptized Blossom when she was born in Evantson Illinois.

revised(sorrowfully) July 1982 to record Blossom's death.

Blossom's career

She was born in Evanston Ill while her father was in Seminary at Garrett. He was also acting as minister at a church in Lombard Ill. The various places where they lived are set forth on page 9. She graduated from Fort Dodge High School in 1927, attended Moringside College at Sioux City for 2 years, and then decided to major in physical education.

She then went to the University of Nebraska, where she graduated in June 1931. Her first job as as recreation director of the Alliance YWCA in Alliance, Ohio where she came in the fall of 1931. Because of the depression the YWCA had to cut back. In thefall of 1931 she began as a part time instructor for physical education for women at Mount Union College, in addition to a part time Y job.

Her future husband Paul had graduated from Mount Union in June 1932, had spent the next school year (1931-1932) as a teaching fellow at the University of Pittsburgh in English as a graduate student. In the fall, Pitt cancelled their fellowships because of the depression. They met in the fall of 1931 in Alliance.

Blossom continued full time at Mount Union College. She and Paul were married in 1935 and moved to Canton where Paul was working and going to night law school until 1939 when he passed the Ohio State Bar Exam and began a career as a lawyer.

She busied herself raising 4 children, but was also busy with many civic and recreational activities in Canton. Some of her activities. For 18 years she had a pre school dance activity at the Canton Art Institute. She revived square dancing in Canton about 1940 at the old YWCA on South Market. Many of the square dance callers now started at the old YWCA. She started modern dance classes at the YW and the Canton Art Institute for many years.

The Canton Ballet recognized her contributions in the Spring Program of 1980 with a special number called The Preacher Said We Could Dance, dedicated to her.

In Carroll County, where she and her husband live on a farm after he became judge, she organized the first square dances at the Algonquin Mill Festival, was entertainment chairman at the Festival for 9 years. She has volunteered at St Johns Villa for retarded children. More recently she is the leader of a group of women who meet weekly to learn folk dances of American and of various countries and to give programs. Quite a lady, her husband says. She died unexpectedly of a stroke while on vacation.

The family story of Bertha Mae Elliott,wife of Edwin Charles McDade (Gen 5 P 8 this index)and mother of Blossom McDade Perkins (Gen 6 Page 9 this appendix)

Introduction

In early July 1982 Blossom and I visited Eldora and Ackley Iowa looking for more about her mother Bertha Mae Elliott(McDade) Enroute we visited our daughter at Iowa City and I looked at census and other records at the Iowa State Historical Society there.It was returning from this trip that Blossom died of a stroke.

In Eldora Iowa, the county seat of Hardin County Iowa, I found the marriage register of the marriage of Bertha Mae Elliott's mother Ophelia Ackerman to her fatherClarence Elliott. This and other records took me back another generation, previously unknown to the McDades, an unfinished story which others can pursue.

Bertha Mae Flliott McDade's mother was Ophelia Ackerman and her father was Clarence Elliott. I will start with her paternal and maternal grandparents.

2 Clarence Elliott
b ca 1856 at Holly Michigan(Oakland Co)(the County where my mother died) (Source. marriage records show 28 at marriage) m Ophelia Ackerman 11/12/1884 at Ackley,Hardin County,Iowa(see Page 11 this app.
d after 1891 and before 1895. He was killed in a railroad accident in South Dakota. As a fireman he was scalded to death. This must have occured after the birth of his last child and 1895 when Ophelia Elliott is listed in the Iowa census as a widow.

life: In 1884 at his marriage he is listed as a farmer resident of Dakota. This was before statehood of the two Dakotas. Residence listed as White Lake Dakota. Family tradition has the death in South Dakota. Census and land records should be examined for further data, in South Dakota.

At the Iowa State Historical Society there were some incomplete cemetery records. I found no Clarence Elliott burial record. Ophelia brought her family back to Iowa Falls,still in Hardin County. I had thought she might have brought his body back. At least I have not found the burial.

See below for the Ackerman story.

his career and migrations

He was a tailor by trade and his wife Mary Carmichael was a milliner. (census)
He is listed in a history of Hardin Co churches as a founding member of the Ackley Methodist Church,Hardin Co Iowa in 1858, thus proving his moving to Iowa before 1858. In an 1883 history of Ackley Iowa he is listed as a trustee of the Ackley Independent School,which had been founded in 1858. Its first principal had been a Prof McDade. No other identification. But that is not our immediate McDade's.

I did not have time to check deed records in Eldora for land he owned. His daughter Ophelia is shown in the marriage register to have been born in High Falls NY in 1854. Thus showing he moved from NY to Iowa after 1854 and before 1858.

In the Iowa census's of 1885 and 1895(apparently Iowa did an independent census between the federal census) I found a large migration of German and Irish into Ackley and Hardin County Iowa. There are other Ackermans,some having been born in German. So I am sure that either Benson Ackerman's father or grandfather came from Germany. Other Ackermans are very ptobably relatives of so,e kind.

Sources for Appendix T

Before 1981 my only information about Gordon Perkins (Gen 17) was from Source 5, a document deposited by Dow Perkins in the Wilkesboro NC library which listed Gordon as a child of Timothy Perkins Sr but said " nothing is known)

In 1979 I had talked to Carl D. Perkins MC Ky in Washington. He told me then that his people had come from Grayson Co Va. But I did not know how he fitted in, although I felt reasonably sure he did somewhere.

Then in August 1981 the Librarian at Carrollton,Ohio turned over to me a letter from Ella Louise May(Gen 1716-132 App T P 2) who inquired about my Perkins family history. She had only recently learned that her gr gr grandmother was Sarah Sally Perkins (dau of Gordon) (Gen 171 App T P 1)

How had she found me out? From Notes that Minnie Hall who said some data was from Judge Paul M. Perkins.

From that time Ella Louise flooded me with data. So Appendix T is mainly from her.

all the data is gathered into Sources 32 and 33. They consist of letters family group sheets from

(1) Ella Louise May,2204 Lester Drive NE 404 Albuquerque NM 87112 (Gen 1716-132 App T P 2)
(2) She had information from Donald Perkins 4280 N Ocean Blvd Fort Lauderdale Fla 33308. Donald is a nephew of Edwin Perkins and son Ivan Perkins. Edwin was the founder of the famous Kool Aid Company. Their story is in Appendix N-O Page 6. They come from a brnch that went first to Illinois and then to Nebraska.
(3) Minnie Hall of 2617 Lyndhurst Street,Roanoke Va 24012 who saw my mss in the Library at Jefferson NC. She is descended from Lucy Perkins Young (Gen 19 p 8 of main mss) the last child of Timothy Perkins Sr

This completes what I know of the 5 children of Martha Jane Perkins King. Sources 31 A-G. The 5th child was Isaac, who died age 3,accidently drinking carbolic acid.

Other interesting facts about Martha Jane Perkins King

Her father was John Felix "Buck" Perkins. She was one of 6 children by the 2nd m of Buck to Lucretia. My grandfather was Dempsey White Perkins,one of 9 children of Buck by his 1st wife Nancy McKeehan.

Buck owned about 400 acres, farmed, had a blacksmith shop making and reparing farm tools, and a still. But he was not a moonshiner. As one old timer in Ky told me, "He was a govamint distiller" meaning he paid his excise takes. From Jerome Layton I learned that he made medicinal whiskey for the Union army. This branch of the family were on the northern side. During the Civil War, Confederate foragers from across the Tennessee border would sometimes liberate his whiskey.

Whem The Civil War came, the men would hear by a grapevine that the Conferates were coming and would disappear into the woods with their live stock. Felixs cousins who had remained in Virginia and North Caroline were in the Confederate Army.

When Martha got married, Buck gave her $300 in gold coins, probably worth several thousand dollars now. This confirms a story told me by his grandson Ernest Perkins (Gen 4-111) son of Martha's brother John that Buck gave all his children gold coins when they married. Ernest's son Leslie Perkins Rte 1 Rockholds Ky still lives on the farm, part of which was patented by Solomon Perkins in 1811. As Leslie puts it, only the Perkins's and the Indians have owned this land.

Martha had dark hair, dark skin, and was sometimes called "black Martha" I have another story from Mrs. Phillip Tribble (Gen 115 App U P 2.) "I always longed to know more about her. She was an artist. In her letters she had drawn in coloredink all over the paper, birds, some sitting on their nests. They were quite beautifful.")

Explanation of additional sources

Appendix K has a seperate listing of sources.

Appendix N-O has also an additional listinfof sources on Appendix N-O page 9

In the text sources are indicated by number at the appropiate places.

Description of Sources

1. The Families of Ancient New Haven by Donald Jacobus a 1927 edition has been recently re-issued and is generally available. Vol VI Pages 1425,1689,and 1690

2. The Perkins Family Descendants of New England in Virginia and North Carolina a mss by Dow Perkins in the State Library of Virginia at Richmond, found in April 1976

3. Mss notes of Dow Perkins on the parents of Timothy Perkins Sr(Gen. 1 Page 3) on deposit in the Wilkesboro North Carolina public library.

4. Bulletins of the Genealogical Society of Original Wilkes County (N.C.) 4 issues between 1968 and 1970 on the Perkins's written by Dow Perkins

5. Perkins Family Settlers in Western Virginia and Descendants of New England Immigrants,(1631-1640) a mss by Dow Perkins on file in said library of Wilkesboro N.C. I later heard from him in Florida.

6. Another mss by Dow Perkins in the same library.

   Members of the Perkins family owe a debt of gratitude to Dow Perkins. I wrote to him in 1976 at what was apparently an old address, but received no answer.

7. Children and Descendants of Mary Polly Brown(ne Perkins) (Gen. 31 P 16) from Ruby Stallings, her descendant, in 1958, then of Oklahoma City Ok.

8. Children and Descendants of John Felix (Buck) Perkins (Gen. No 4 P. 19) a mss in the handwriting of Aunt Alezena Craig (Gen. No 13 App. B. P 3) sent to me in 1952 by a cousin Flora Perkins(Gen 11 App A P. 1) in 1952. (including marriage and cemetery records of Whitley Co)

9. Genealogical chart of American ancestors of Timothy Perkins Sr(Gen 1 P 3) prepared by Edna Stewart of Williamsburg Ky and given me by Leslie Perkins of Rockholds Ky(Gen 4-11-12 P 20) in 1974. This was the first time I knew where in New England Timothy Perkins Sr had come from. That led me to visit the New Haven Colony Historical Society in November 1974

10. Notes on Timothy Perkins Sr and his ancestors from the New Haven Colony Historical Society in a visit there November 1974

11 Land Entry Book,Wilkes County N.C by Mrs Ruby Abscher issued by the Genealogical Society of Original Wilkes Co N.C. 1971 from the Wilkesboro N.C. Public Library

12. Notes by the writer. May 1975 of the public and courthouse records of Ashe (Formerly Wilkes) Co N.C., and Grayson Co Va. In April 1976 notes on records of Wythe Co Va, and from the state archives at Raleigh N.C. and Richmond Va. Alos Whitley and Knox Co Ky.

13 Letter and information from Elsie Conners, Stamford Neb 1/4/1978. Information as to migration of Stephen Perkins(Gen 152 P 5), and of Timothy Perkins (Gen 21 Page 10), and of Jesse Alvin Perkins (Gen 23 Page 10) to Bureau Co Illinois. This source also contains exerpts from Reminiscences of Bureau Co Illinois, 1872, and Maps And Sketches of Bureau County, by Matson, 1867, which works also contain information about members of our branch of the Perkins family who moved west from Kentucky and Grayson Co Va about 1828 and went from Illinois to Iowa and then Nebraska. Their descendants are listed in Appendix O at Page 3.

14 Family Bible Record of Mart Perkins, (1979) 10771 Black Mountain Rd Apt 42 San Diego Cal 92126 from said Elsie Conner (App O Page 3)

15 Genealogical charts from said Elsie Conners Stamford Neb showing her lineage from Jesse Alvin Perkins (Gen. 23 Page 12) and showing many of the children and descendants of said Jesse Alvin who moved to Illinois, then to Iowa, and then to Nebraska. (See Appendix O Pages 3-6)

16 Diary of a Geological Tour by Dr. Elisha Mitchell, University of North Carolina 1905. This describes a tour taken in 1827 and 1828 in North Carolina. On Pages 24,25,and 29 it contains references to Timothy Perkins Jr (Gen. 15 P 5) and to Stephen Perkins (Gen 152 P 5). It is evidence also as to the writer's conclusion as to the date of death of Timothy Perkins Sr (Gen. No 1 Page 3)

17 Genealogy of the Sharp Family by James B. Faulkner 1935. This is the basis of the information in Appendix E about the writers grandmother Elizabeth Winburn Sharp (Mrs Dempsey Perkins) (Gen 5 Page 21). A sister of Elizabeth, Samantha Sharp, was the mother of James Faulkner.

18 Raw notes about the family by U.S. Grant Perkins, father of the writer (Gen 6 Page 23). These were made about 1932 and sent to Flora Perkins (Gen 11 App. A Page 1) They were sent on to me by Flora about 1952 after the death of my father. Note that my father did not apparently know the correct name of his great grandfather Solomon (Gen 3 Page 16) even though I found he was buried about 10 miles from my father's boyhood home.

19 Letter and Information from Mr. and Mrs Orville Perkins,5424 Warren Ave Norwood, Ohio 45212 on 3/26/1979 about William Perkins (Gen 28 Page 13)

20 Children and Descendants of Lela Edna Perkins (m Henry Jones) (App B. P. 1 Gen. 11) , and of Joseph Warren Perkins (App B Gen 1 and Gen 53 P 21), and of John Felix Perkins (Appendix A and Gen. No 52 Page 21) This came from Louise Jones Geisler 40 Locust Street Springsboro Ohio 45066 October 1978

23 Material received 1981 from Elsie Conners of Stamford Neb.(descendant of Jesse Alvin Perkins (Gen. 23 P 12) It consists (A) 10 pages of a mss said to be by Dow Perkins called The Perkins Family, Pre Revolutionary Pioneers which contains most of the information in Sources 1 thru 6 by the same man but contains many more dates etc. (B) a more detailed genealogy from Jesse Alvin Perkins, but similar to that in Source 13. and (C) a phptocopy of part of a privately printed pamphlet by Augustus Thorndike Perkins. This is about the English ancestors of Edward Perkins of New Haven and simply confirms the sources cited in Appendix K. I believe this item is in the Library of Congress No 13347 CS71.P45 1890

24 Letter from Mrs Jesse Reeves of West Jefferson N.C., a well known local genealogist received 7/6/1981 (Letter No 266) on the question of the date of death of Timothy Perkins Sr (Gen. 1 P 3)

25 Material gathered in a trip to Virginia and North Carolina Oct. 1981

A Additional information and names as tothe children and descendants of Timothy Perkins Jr (Gen. No. 15 Page 5) which I have worked into the story in the Nov 1981 revision. From Mrs Jesse Reeves West Jefferson N C

Explanation of Index of Names

This index of names includes all of those as of November 1981 in pages 3-26 of the main mss and in Appendices A,B,C,D,E.F,and R.

It does not include names in the English History (Appendix K) or in the "ew Haven History (Appendix I)

There is a seperate index to Appendix N-O (thw westward bound branch) The index is coded with the generation number and the page where found. If found in an appendix that is also listed. Some are found both in the main mss (pages 3-26) and in an appendix.

The names in the index that are underlined arethe immediate family of the writer.

Index of Names appearing in Pages 3-26, and in Appendices A,B,C,D,E,F, and R
I have not alphabetized the names within each letter of the alphabet. The underlined names of my immediate family or their ancestors.
